Sonata

In a fascinating encounter between the elegant and the subtle, the Sonata collection emerges as an ode to the natural. With a delicate white body aesthetic, this series of tiles captures the essence of calm and serenity in each ceramic design. Sonata presents a smooth texture, full of nuances, inspired by authentic stones such as limestone and sandstone where each tile reflects the history of landscapes sculpted by millennia of tranquillity. The Balance series is the ideal floor covering to achieve stylistic and chromatic harmony with the Sonata wall covering, creating an integral solution for the home.
